membership

Purpose

The Oncology Nurses Group is a nursing special interest group which has operated state-wide in Queensland since 1977.

Membership is open to any nurse interested in cancer care or caring for anyone affected by cancer. Registered, enrolled, student, pupil and assistant nurses are eligible to join the Oncology Nurses Group.

The Oncology Nurses Group aims to promote cancer nursing and to support nurses caring for people with cancer.

Benefits of membership

- Quarterly newsletter.
- Eligibility for travel grants:
  - Oncology Nurses Group Conference travel grants;
  - National Cancer Conference travel grants; and
  - International scholarship and travel awards.
- Priority notification of conferences, seminars, education programs and meetings.
- Observer status with notice to the Secretary at Executive Committee meetings.
- National cancer journal (Cancer Forum).
